

'Jewish Marriages in Amsterdam 1598–1811' ISBN 90-72477-25-1

Available at Stadsarchief Amsterdam, Vijzelstraat 32

Volume 1: Banns of marriage (Ashkenazi and Sephardi)

Volume 2, Section 14: Sephardic groom's family name

Section 15: Sephardic bride's family name

Section 16: Sephardic witness's family name

Section 17: Sephardic bride's/groom's family name (where both on record) etc.

Extracted from 'Banns of marriage' section, after referring to section 14 in vol 2:

Date	Groom's name	Born	Witness	Bride's name	Born	Witness	Place of origin bridegroom	Place of origin bride	Ref
1673	David B Louzada	1640	Luna BL (mother)	Ester Rodrigues da Costa	1649	Jacob Montezinos	Livorno	Paris	689-88
1677	David B Louzada	–	Ester Rodrigues (widow)	Rachel Levie Gomes	1652	Jacob Levie (bro)	Livorno	Madrid	691-53
1709	Salomon B Louzada	1678	Jacob Levie Gomes (uncle)	Sara Baruch Louzada	1681	Ab. Henriques Faro (uncle)	–	London	706-430
1714	David Louzada	–	–	Sara de Mercado	–	–	–	Den Haag	709-421
1728	Manasse Louzada	–	–	Ribca de Mercado	–	–	–	Den Haag	716-414
1695	Salomon Louzada	1669	Isaac L (father)	Abigail Gaon	1674	Manasse Gaon (father)	–	–	699-167

The first entry perhaps the most interesting - he is about the right age (b1640) to be brother of MBL1, mother Luna, father Isaac (I'm pretty sure, though my quick notes are deficient) and interestingly born in Livorno.