http://trove.nla.gov.au/ndp/del/article/132861357?searchTerm=lousada&searchLimits=

Newcastle Morning Herald and Miners' Advocate (NSW : 1876 - 1954)(about)
Friday 28 March 1947

But later he has a problem:

Mate Of Boppel Is Cautioned

SYDNEY.—The bridge of the British vessel Boppel had been left unattended when she ran aground near Bateman's Bay on the night of Jan. 24.

the night of Jan. 24. In the Court of Marine Inquiry today, Judge Studdert condemned this and warned Mate Edward Charles Hall Lousada as to his future conduct. It was said that the Boppel Mate Edward Charles Hall Lousada as to his future conduct. It was said that the Boppel sustained £11,000 damage, Lousada gave evidence that he left the bridge unattended for 20 minutes to make navigational calculations.

There was not enough crew to enable a full-time watch to be kept.

The Newcastle Sun (NSW : 1918 - 1954) (about) 🛛